This report of programs and program segments addressing issues of importance and concern in the NewsChannel 5 viewing area includes the following:

- ☐ NEWSCHANNEL 5 NEWS – WTVF produces daily newscasts providing local information of interest to viewers in the Nashville designated market area. The station produces 32 hours of news each week, not including breaking news, special reports, and severe weather coverage. News and information on Crime and safety, Government and Politics, Local Schools, the Economy, Health, public facilities, as well as local sports, are routinely included in the news. WTVF also presents newscast features that heighten viewer awareness of problems and concerns including segments such on crime, education and health. Regularly scheduled newscasts air Monday through Friday, 4:00 to 7:00 AM, 4:00 PM, 5:00 PM, 6:00 to 7:00 PM, and 10:00 PM; and on weekends starting at 6:00 AM., in the early evening, and at 10:00 PM..
- ☐ NEWSCHANNEL 5 REPORTS - WTVF regularly produces major series of one or more parts scheduled in the 6 PM REPORT and 10 PM REPORT. These special features provide in-depth reporting on subjects of importance to the WTVF viewing audience and may focus on such topics as government and politics, crime, consumer news, public health, and other issues of local interest. (See Attachment A)
- ☐ CBS PROGRAMS - WTVF regularly telecasts 60 MINUTES, 48 HOURS MYSTERIES, and FACE THE NATION, and from time to time, CBS specials. These specials take the form of Public Affairs programs or news specials. (See Attachment B.)
- ☐ CHILDREN'S PROGRAMMING - WTVF provides programming and other related activities to serve the educational and informational needs of children in Channel 5's viewing area. Attached is a copy of WTVF's Children Television Programming Report (FCC Form 398) for the period January 1, 2011, through March 31, 2011. (See Attachment C.)
- ☐ TALK OF THE TOWN - A 30-minute Monday through Friday program telecast 11:00-11:30 AM. On a regular basis, the program addresses issues of importance and concern in the WTVF viewing area. The co-hosts are Meryll Rose and Lelan Statom. (See Attachment D.)
- ☐ PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENTS - WTVF schedules public service announcements for a myriad of community agencies and organizations. Attached is a list of PSA's that aired January 1, 2011, through March 31, 2011. (See Attachment E.)
- ☐ NEWSCHANNEL 5+ PROGRAMMING – WTVF produces and programs a second channel, NewsChannel 5+ which is distributed via cable and over the air on 5.2 to approximately 630,000 households in the viewing area. NewsChannel 5+ provides 24 hours of news and information programming with primarily local interest focus. Programming includes shows for niche audiences, including African Americans, Hispanics, the Gay and Lesbian community, business, politics, schools, local politics/government, call-in programs to discuss significant local issues in-depth, and rebroadcast of WTVF programming. NewsChannel 5+ also carries local specials, including government prayer breakfasts, local court proceedings, election coverage, and other events of local interest. Local government officials, law enforcement leaders, and the director of schools are regular guests. This regular interaction with community leaders helps WTVF stay abreast and ascertain those issues of concern to viewers in the Nashville area. (See Attachment F.)

JANUARY 1, 2011 – MARCH 31, 2011

- ☐ CHRIS MATTHEWS SHOW – “The Chris Matthews Show” is a half-hour weekend public affairs roundtable that examines the week’s most compelling topics in the news. The roundtable discussion features reporters, editors, and political news columnists. The program is based in Washington, D.C., and is produced by NBC News. “The Chris Matthews Show” airs on WTVF Sunday mornings at 5:30 AM. (See Attachment G.)
- ☐ LOCAL SPECIALS - On a continuing but irregular basis, WTVF may telecast local specials, either produced by WTVF or syndicated, in all dayparts, addressing subjects of special importance. (See Attachment H.)
- ☐ INSIDE POLITICS WITH PAT NOLAN - Inside Politics is Middle Tennessee's best source for an insider’s view of state and local politics. The show is hosted by veteran political reporter Pat Nolan. Pat sits down with the big newsmakers to get the inside scoop on the decisions that affect us all. “Inside Politics” airs on WTVF Sunday mornings at 5:00 AM. (See Attachment I.)

SUMMARY/PARTICIPANTS

This story from NewsChannel 5 Investigative Reporter Jennifer Kraus focused on the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs and the federal program that is supposed to manage their money. The Fiduciary is assigned to oversee more than $700 Million to help thousands of veterans and their families. Our investigation found the fiduciary was a convicted felon, had been sent to federal prison and had died. We found the V.A. does little to screen its fiduciaries and little to keep tabs on the money they handle. Tennessee Congressman Jim Cooper said that it was obvious that the VA was not on top of the situation. We also talked with veterans who had not received money they were supposed to be receiving.

This investigation from NewsChannel 5's Scott Arnold looked into a controversial issue up for debate on Tennessee's Capitol Hill. Tennessee State Senator Bill Ketron is pushing a bill to make drivers license tests be only given in English. He believes this would keep illegal immigrants off the road. Opponents of the bill say it's pointless because illegal immigrants do not go to the DMV anyway. In an exclusive hidden camera investigation, we found that if you know where to go and have the cash, you can both buy a car and get insurance without being a legal citizen. The English-only drivers license bill will be up for debate in the coming weeks – the station will follow-up with the outcome on Capitol Hill.

FOCUS 5 REPORT

4 ½ minutes

This story from NewsChannel 5's Chief Investigative reporter Phil Williams used audio tapes to investigate what happened to money that was missing from a local government agency. The investigation focused on Gay Rooker, an employee and the wife of the politically-connected Circuit Court Clerk Ricky Rooker and concerned possibly up to $10,000 in missing court money. We acquired secret audio tapes from the investigation inside the Davidson County Sheriff's Department. There were many questions involving the missing money and the many different stories Rooker told during the investigation. While she refused to talk with us, she ended up resigning her position. However, she will face no criminal charges.

This exclusive report from NewsChannel 5 Investigative Reporter Jennifer Kraus looked into the case of one of Tennessee's most notorious serial killers. Paul Reid had been convicted for killing seven local fast food workers. He was scheduled back in court the day after this story ran as his attorney argue that Reid is too mentally unstable to be executed. In this report we showed never before seen videos of Reid during hours of psychiatric evaluations. Is he mentally unstable or very calculating in his actions? We showed the tapes – it is up to the courts and the viewers to decide.

The issue of Post Traumatic Stress Syndrome and the effects of what our military do in combat is being looked at nationwide. Perkins has not gone to trial yet, but admitted his part in the killings to us and talked about PTSD's effects on him.
2/25/11 10:00 PM	NewsChannel 5 REPORT FOCUS 5 REPORT 4 ½ minutes	This story from NewsChannel 5 Reporter Jeff Tang looked at the meth problem in Tennessee and how despite the states efforts, it is an even bigger problem now. It was almost six years ago when the state implemented laws restricting the sale of one of the drug's key ingredients - however, we found that meth lab seizures are at an all-time high. Last year alone, a record-number of meth labs were seized - 2,032 across the state. We talked to authorities attempting to stop the spread of the drug as well as former meth makers who shared their inside knowledge of how the problem is getting worse. The estimated cost to the state of Tennessee last year is one billion dollars.
2/28/11 10:00 PM	NewsChannel 5 REPORT FOCUS 5 REPORT 4 ½ minutes	This investigation from NewsChannel 5's Chief Investigative Reporter Phil Williams uncovered serious questions about whether a Nashville judge put mentally ill defendants in the care of a man who was not licensed to treat them. Both the judge, Dan Eisenstein, and the man he called "an excellent psychologist", James Casey insist they did nothing wrong. We found that Casey is not licensed by the state as a psychologist and should not have been used as an expert to treat these defendants.

These are multi-million dollar crimes that cost all of us money. Tractor trailers stolen by organized gangs are on the rise in Middle Tennessee. This report uses exclusive video inside a recent cargo theft to highlight the problem. Weak penalties make this crime tougher to fight. Trucking company owners are pushing for a cargo security council with federal authority to investigate - similar to what Memphis has already put in place.

Each weekday a segment on the latest medical news airs in the 5 & 6:30 PM newscasts. These segments address current issues, including the latest medical technology and breakthroughs. These segments featured anchor Kristin Priesol or various national health experts.

This story from NewsChannel 5 Investigative Reporter Ben Hall examined radon gas and its connection to cancer in residents of Middle Tennessee. We specifically looked at the role it possibly played in the cancers of a prominent Middle Tennessee family. Former Sumner County Sheriff Bob Barker was diagnosed with pancreatic cancer and passed away last August. Just a week after his death, his wife was diagnosed with esophagus cancer. Tests at their home showed extremely high levels of radon gas. Although there is no way to say if the radon caused their cancer, doctors tell us radon is a big problem in Tennessee and a major cause of lung cancer. We showed viewers their research on radon in Middle Tennessee, including maps of the areas with the highest levels of the odorless gas. We also told viewers about radon test kits they can buy to check the levels in their own homes.

This story from NewsChannel 5 Investigative Reporter Ben Hall looked at how credit card companies are targeting college students - sometimes with help from the school. Our investigation found once-secret contracts showing how Chase Bank was paying the University of Tennessee more than $1.4 Million a year for exclusive access to students. That access includes the right to request names, telephone numbers and e-mail addresses of students, faculty and alumni to market its credit card. Under the contract, UT can also receive royalty payments and a percentage of all sales on the credit cards. Middle Tennessee State University also had a contract with Chase that ended last year. Because federal law has now made these arrangements public, many credit card companies are ending the contracts. We provided the UT contract on our website for viewers to read for themselves. In this report we also talked with a family worried about their college student since one of the parents had incurred large credit card debt while in college themselves.

This story by NewsChannel 5 Consumer Investigative Report Jennifer Kraus looked at how Tennessee received nearly $100 Million last year in federal stimulus money to weatherize homes. Specifically, MDHA used its share of that money to fix up more than 1,000 homes for low-income, elderly and disabled folks. Our month-long investigation is now raising questions about whether weatherization is really making a difference. The work in some homes was done so poorly that both power bills and energy usage actually went way up. We found contractors either failing to do the work they are supposed to do or failing to do it right. We went straight to MDHA and received no answers to our questions.

A "School Patrol" story airs every Wednesday during the 6:30 PM newscast. The stories look at everything from education issues to student activities and awards to special teachers. Anchor Vicki Yates does the "School Patrol" stories. The reports air again on Saturday mornings in the 6-9 AM newscast.

This story from NewsChannel 5 Reporter Nick Beres looked at teen suicide and how a local teen is trying to help other teens. There has been a recent rash of teen suicides in Mt. Juliet. In this heartfelt report, we hear from an 18-year old who knew some of those who had committed suicide and once had thoughts of suicide himself. He has now started a Facebook page to try to help and offer support for other teens. He hopes it will let teens know they are not alone - in fact, the name of the Facebook group is "We All Matter". Within 30-minutes of this story airing, the Facebook group had more than 300 new fans and included touching stories from teens who had seen our story and were glad for the support. One local teen even commented that she had considered killing herself that night and then saw our story and changed her mind.

"Bad Medicine" - an interview with Cheryl Eckard, a former quality control manager for GlaxoSmithKline, the pharmaceutical company. In 2002, she discovered numerous serious drug manufacturing flaws at a Glaxo plant in Cidra, Puerto Rico. She informed her superiors, but no corrections were implemented. Eight months later, she sent a detailed report of the ongoing problems to seven executives. Within weeks, she was dismissed, supposedly because of downsizing. She then turned the same information over to the FDA, and her lawyers filed suit under the federal whistle-blower law. Glaxo pleaded guilty to a felony, and eventually paid $750 million to settle the criminal conviction and Eckard's suit. Also includes comments by: Ian McCubbin, a Glaxo senior vice president; Dr. Jerry Avorn, Harvard Medical School; Neil Getnick, a lawyer for Cheryl Eckard. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Denise Schrier Cetta)

48 HOURS MYSTERY

- 01/01/11      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Toxic" (9:00-10:00pm) - a follow-up to "Tracking A Killer" (OAD: 12/11/02). On December 2, 2000, 30-year-old Eric Miller died in a Raleigh, North Carolina hospital. Blood tests had revealed that he had been poisoned with arsenic. Police investigation discovered that Eric's wife, Ann, a chemist, was having an affair with Derril Willard, a biochemist who worked at the same company as she. On the day after police initially questioned him about Eric's death, Derril Willard committed suicide. Prior to doing so, he had a confidential conversation with his lawyer, Rick Gammon. Years passed -- and in the spring of 2004, the North Carolina Supreme Court ruled that Gammon must reveal what Willard had told him about Ann's role in Eric's murder. Gammon then revealed how Ann admitted to Derril Willard that she had injected a substance into Eric's IV bag...and Willard had told Gammon that he himself had never tried to kill Eric. Ann Miller was charged with Eric's murder. Because the District Attorney and the Miller family had misgivings about the outcome of a trial, Ann was offered a plea bargain: twenty-five years in prison for Eric's murder. She accepted. Among those interviewed are: Lieutenant Chris Morgan, Raleigh, N.C. Police Department; Doris and Versus Miller, Eric's parents; Pam Baltzell and Leeann Magee, Eric's sisters; Renee Henson, Ann Miller's college roommate; Deborah Regentin, detective, Raleigh, N.C. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

01/01/11

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Girl Who Knew Too Much" (10:00-11:00pm) - a report on the 1992 murder of 19-year-old Mischelle Lawless, whose bloodied body was found in an abandoned car on a desolate strip of highway in Benton, Missouri. As Deputy Sheriff Rick Walter was working on the crime scene, a local man, Mark Abbott, reported that he had seen the young woman in her car, and also told investigators that he saw a white car driving near the crime scene. Police questioned Lawless' boyfriend, Leon Lamb, but could find nothing to tie him to the crime, and he passed a polygraph. Four months into the investigation, investigators got a break: 17-year-old Joshua Kezer had been held briefly in the county jail on assault charges, where, according to several inmates, he confessed to killing Lawless. Then Mark Abbott identified Kezer from a photo lineup as the driver of the white car he had seen near the crime scene. Police then charged Kezer with first-degree murder. During the trial, a young woman, Chantelle Crider, identified Kezer as having been at a party where he had words with Mischelle. However, no DNA, fingerprints or murder weapon linked Kezer to the scene. Nevertheless, Kezer was convicted and sentenced to 60 years in prison. The case haunted Rick Walter and in 2005, now sheriff, he re-opened the case. Soon the foundation on which Kezer's conviction was built began to crumble, as witnesses admitted to lying and evidence was questioned. Judge Richard Callahan agreed to review the case and was so disturbed by what he saw that instead of ordering a new trial, he declared Josh Kezer an innocent man. But someone killed Mischelle and high on the list of suspects is that local man, Mark Abbott, who was once a star witness for the prosecution. In fact, there are two Abbotts, Mark and his identical twin Matt. To this day, Walters is not sure which Abbott brother came in to report finding Mischelle, and two people in the office say that it was his brother Matt. Leon Lamb also remains a suspect. With the help of forensics experts at a "crime farm" in the Netherlands, who have examined DNA evidence, Walters hopes further investigation will allow him to bring the case to a grand jury. On screen text graphic update: Josh Kezer is suing former Sheriff Bill Ferrell for wrongful arrest. Onscreen text graphic update for 01/01/11: Josh Kezer sued Scott County and former Sheriff Bill Ferrell for wrongful arrest. They settled the case for several million dollars. Interviewed: Sheriff Rick Walter; Joshua Kezer; Melissa Gaines, Mischelle's best friend; Mark Abbott; Jason Lawless, Mischelle's brother; Leon Lamb; Valerie Eubanks, Mischelle's sister; Esther Lawless, Mischelle's mother; Chantelle Crider; Brandon Caid, investigator; Dawn Pierce, host of the party; Jane Williams, church volunteer at the Missouri State Prison; Judge Richard Callahan; Ron Burton, friend of Mark Abbott; Richard and Selma Eikelenboom, Dutch forensics experts. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Fatal Choice" - On August 16, 2009, 56-year-old Sandra Franklin called police to report a violent confrontation with her husband at their Bainbridge, Ohio, horse ranch. Shortly after, authorities received a call from the victim himself, Dr. Peter Franklin, who had been stabbed in the chest. Within hours, Peter was dead and his wife was charged with murder. Shortly after their marriage in 2000, Sandra had fired Peter's longtime office manager and taken over the job herself. Peter then dropped his malpractice insurance, no longer accepted health insurance and moved his assets to Sandra in case he was sued. He also switched from family medicine to pain management and, according to law enforcement officials, dispensed an alarming amount of drugs and generated a lot of cash. His office was raided by State drug investigators in 2009, but no arrests were made. Sandra claims the stress of the investigation caused Peter to become violent. They were on the brink of divorce. Peter demanded his assets back and Sandra refused. During one of their many arguments, Sandra claimed that Peter threatened her life with a pen knife which he kept on his key chain. During the argument she grabbed a large knife from their kitchen and she stabbed Peter. She claimed it was self defense. She had scratches on her body, but the police believed they were self-inflicted. Sandra was charged with murder. Her trial began nine months after Peter's death. Her defense attorney said Sandra acted in self defense. After four days of deliberation, Sandra was found guilty of murder. At her sentencing three weeks later, Sandra still professed herself to be innocent of all charges. The judge gave her the mandatory sentence of fifteen years to life. Onscreen graphics: Sandra Franklin never collected on her husband Peter's life insurance policy. That policy and his estate, worth $1.5 million, went to his niece and nephew. Sandra Franklin will be eligible for parole in 2025. She will be 72. Interviewed: Sandra Franklin; Liz Franklin, Peter's first wife; Bobbi Arters, Peter's ex-girlfriend; Sandy McDermott, Peter's office manager, who was fired by Sandy; Investigator Karen Sweet; Geauga County prosecutors David Joyce and Carly Snavely; Sergeant Andy Kelley who questioned Sandra on the night of Peter's death; Steve Bell, Sandra's defense attorney. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Body of Lies" - In the fall of 2006, after two failed relationships that resulted in the birth of her daughters Ashlyn and Tyler, 31-year-old Leisha Hurst seemed to be getting her life on track. While attending Barstow College, studying to become a teacher, she began dating fellow student, 34-year-old Jeami Chiapulis, who bragged about being a war hero and cancer survivor. Chiapulis seemed to be the man she could finally settle down with. The couple had plans to marry when Hurst vanished on January 22, 2009. The next day, Hurst's abandoned car was found 50 miles south of her Barstow, California home, in the town of Hesperia. After denying he and Leisha were in a relationship, Chiapulis admitted to investigators that he was married to Army Lieutenant Colonel Katherine Taylor. He was also involved in a relationship with another Barstow student, Joyce Fransson. When searching his home, police found receipts for items he had recently purchased that could be used in disposing of a body. Leisha's brother took a photograph of rubber gloves and a shower cap that he found near the location of his sister's disappearance. He gave the photograph to the police and the gloves and shower cap to Chiapulis. Chiapulis then gave the gloves and a shower cap to the police. They compared them to the photograph and realized that he had given them a different pair of gloves and a different colored cap. Chiapulis had checked himself into a mental ward; upon checking himself out, he was arrested by the police. Leisha's body had still not been found and the police realized they might be forced to make a deal with Chiapulis to recover her body. In exchange for a reduced sentence, Chiapulis would admit to killing Leisha and reveal where he had buried her body. Her body was recovered on October 8, 2009 and Chiapulis was sentenced to fifteen years to life in prison. He implicated his girlfriend Joyce Fransson, telling the police she was with him when he buried Leisha. Fransson admitted she was with him when he buried a trash can in the desert, but she denied knowing its contents. She was brought to trial on July 26, 2010. After one day of trial, the judge unexpectedly offered her a plea deal, which she accepted. Onscreen graphics: While in prison, Jeami Chiapulis allegedly tried to hire a hitman to kill Joyce Fransson, Detective Keith Libby and Leisha Hurst's two daughters. Chiapulis will face murder-for-hire charges next month. Police say his wife, Army hero Lieutenant Colonel Katherine Taylor, had no knowledge of his double life. She annulled the marriage in December 2009. Ashlyn and Tyler are being raised separately by their fathers. Interviewed: Lynn Hurst, Leisha's father; Debbie Welch, Leisha's mother; Ashlyn and Tyler, Leisha's daughters; Detective Keith Libby from the Barstow Police Department; Jaime Tatro, who once dated Jeami Chiapulis; Joyce Fransson, Jeami's girlfriend; District Attorney Sean Daugherty. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Temptation" - In June 2007, Dewayne Barrentine, a single father with an 8-year old son met Tausha Fields, a single mother with a 5-year-old daughter, Lexie, and soon after they began living together in Marianna, Florida. Tausha told him some unbelievable stories about herself - that she had a criminal justice degree and a promised inheritance from a Federal judge. He went online to verify her stories and found a marriage certificate which showed she had been married to Mitchell Wayne Kemp. His online searching also led him to one of Tausha's previous boyfriends, Keith Jones, who said Tausha told him she had lured one of her ex-husbands to a farm where he was murdered. Barrentine continued his online investigations and discovered that Mitchell Wayne Kemp had been missing since August 2004. He brought this information to the police and they believed they were dealing with a homicide. They brought Tausha in for questioning and at first she denied knowing about Kemp's whereabouts. Eventually she said that Kemp had been murdered by another of her ex-husbands, Greg Morton. She helped them search Morton's farm and they uncovered Kemp's body. An autopsy revealed that he had been shot six times in the chest. The police believed that Tausha was involved in his murder. Three weeks later police arrested Morton and charged him with first degree murder. They were hoping he would implicate Tausha. He remained silent. Fearing Tausha might run, they arrested her also and charged her with first degree murder. She claimed that Morton shot Kemp in a jealous rage, and Morton claimed that it was Tausha's idea and that she had planned the murder so she could have full custody of Lexie. In return for a reduced sentence to second-degree murder, Morton agreed to testify against Tausha at her July 2010 trial. The trial hinged on the word "lure" which was used in testimony by Tausha's ex-boyfriend Keith Jones. After eight hours of deliberation, the jury found Tausha guilty of first degree murder. She will spend the rest of her life in prison. Onscreen text graphic: Mitch's brother and his family are legal guardians of Lexie. Tausha Fields is appealing the verdict. Greg Morton will be eligible for parole in 2024. He will be fifty-six years old. Interviewed: Dewayne Barrentine and Keith Jones, Tausha's ex-boyfriends; Tausha Fields; Lou Roberts, police chief in Marianna, Florida; Carole, Tracy and Michelle Kemp, Mitch's mother, brother and sister; Dave Wilson, detective in the Boone County Sheriff's Department; Prosecutors Richard Hicks and Andrea Hayes; Public defender Paul Hood, Tausha's attorney; Jamie Bowden, a neighbor of Greg Morton and Tausha; four unidentified jurors. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Every Picture Tells a Story" - On February 15, 2009, Cathy McNaughton was stabbed to death in her home in Sharpsburg, Georgia. The day had started with her husband Alec serving her breakfast in bed. He said he then went to visit his mother in Sandy Springs, Georgia, about an hour away. When he returned home, he says he found his wife in a pool of blood. As the victim's husband, he was a suspect, but he had an alibi. Another suspect was Cathy's former husband, Gary Mendenhall, who had been in town that day. He also had an alibi. Alec claimed to be at his mother's house until the evening. He said that he had called Cathy at 2:30PM from his mother's house, but records showed the call originated from a cell phone tower only two miles from his house in Sharpsburg. He also claimed that he made a 911 call while kneeling down next to Cathy's body, but he had no blood on him. Alec's friends and family members started calling police to say they were afraid of him and that he was abusive. Alec's first wife, Linda, said he had beaten her and that is why they were divorced. Police discovered a secret file about Alec that Cathy kept in the closet. There were disposable cameras with pictures of a bruised and battered Cathy. Alec was arrested, but the prosecutor could not show these pictures to the jury until they found the photographer. Their investigation led them to Sandra Harmon, who had been a counselor at Delta Airlines where Cathy had worked. Cathy told her that Alec had attacked and beaten her the day before, and she asked Sandra to take pictures of her injuries. Prosecutors were now able to present these pictures as evidence. Another previous wife said that Alec had pulled a shotgun on their daughter and threatened to kill their daughter, her and himself. During the trial Alec took the stand and denied everything his accusers said about him. The jury found him guilty of murder and he was stunned by the verdict. Onscreen text graphic: Alec McNaughton was sentenced to life in prison. McNaughton is now represented by a public defender and is planning an appeal. Interviewed: Criminal investigator Jason Fetner; Michelle and Heather Mendenhall, Cathy's daughters; Alec McNaughton; Prosecutor Kevin McMurry; Linda McNaughton, Alec's ex-wife; Sandra Harmon, counselor who took the pictures of Cathy; Michael Kam, Alec's defense attorney. 48 HOURS MYSTERY

02/05/11      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Thou Shalt Not Kill" (9:00-10:00pm) - a report on the November 1994 murder of Farah Fratta, whose body was discovered in the garage of her Humble, Texas home. She had been shot twice in the head. At the time of her death, Farah was in the midst of a divorce. To the outside world, her husband Bob Fratta was an upstanding citizen, who worked in public safety as both a police officer and a fireman. But divorce documents were about to make his dark side public, revealing his strange sexual requests that not only embarrassed Farah, but also sickened her. Bob Fratta seemed the likeliest suspect in his wife's murder, but he had a seemingly airtight alibi: he was at church with their three children as his wife was being murdered. Investigators worked to build their case against Fratta, and four months later they got an unexpected break. Tracing his phone records from the night of his wife's murder led them to a mysterious woman, Mary Gipp, who claimed that she could have prevented Farah's murder. She knew that her boyfriend had been hired by Fratta to kill his wife. Informed by police that she would be charged with murder, she made a deal and was given immunity for her testimony. Her boyfriend, Joe Prystash, had been hired by Fratta to arrange the murder and Prystash had hired Howard Guidry to be the trigger man. Guidry and Prystash were arrested and confessed. Fratta was arrested and charged with murdering his wife. After the trial, it took less than one hour to convict him. He was sentenced to death, along with Prystash and Guidry. Thirteen years after the murder, a federal judge threw out Fratta's conviction and ordered a new trial because the judge said there was testimony linking Fratta to the murder that should never have been admitted. At the new trial, after two days of jury deliberation, Fratta was found guilty of capital murder. The jury decided to send Fratta back to death row. He now plans to appeal his conviction. Interviewed: Lex and Betty Baquer, Farah's parents; Kitty Waters Sneed, Farah's co-worker and closest friend; Detective Larry Davis; Bradley, Daniel and Amber Baquer, Farah and Bob Fratta's children; Mike Edens and Jimmy Podhorsky, who worked out at the gym with Fratta; Prosecutor Kelly Siegler; Mary Gipp, Prystash's girlfriend; social worker Judy Cox; Mike Charlton, Fratta's; Denise Bradley and Mia Magness, prosecutors for the second trial; Randy McDonald and Vivian King, Fratta's attorneys for the second trial. 02/05/11      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Dog Trainer, the Heiress and the Bodyguard" (10:00-11:00pm) - Part one of a two part report on the October 2009 death of Mark Stover, a professional dog trainer. Recently divorced from Linda Opdycke, Stover still operated their lucrative business, "Island Dog Adventures" on Kiket Island, Washington, which they had founded in the early 1990's. Linda, now living elsewhere in Washington state became involved with Michiel Oakes, a weapons expert she had originally hired to analyze her security situation, based upon the fact that Mark had been charged with stalking Linda ever since she initiated their separation. In 2009, Mark moved his dog training business to Anacortes, Washington. Linda and Michiel, now romantically involved, believed that Stover was obsessed with their relationship, as well as with the children from Michiel's previous marriage. On the morning of October 28, 2009, an employee of Mark's arrived at his business and discovered traces of blood in the driveway, Mark's white station wagon missing, and Mark's dog Dingo, shot three times in the face. Based upon a report of trespassing involving two vehicles, one a white station wagon, the other a black SUV, police apprehended the SUV, only to find the driver was Michiel Oakes. The following day, Michiel was arrested at Linda's home on suspicion of murder, after he attempted to dispose of a pistol. Interviewed: Andrea Franulovich, client and friend of Mark's; Vickie Simmons, Mark's sister; Linda Opdycke, Mark's ex-wife; Nancy Corbin, Linda's mother; Danny Jensen, man who claims that Mark threatened him with a gun; Sheriff Frank Rogers; Chief Deputy Dave Rodriguez; Ruthie Hagemeister, Linda's neighbor; Julia Simmons, Mark's niece; Michiel Oakes; Amanda Oakes, Michiel's daughter; Teresa Vaux-Michael, Mark's fiancée; Leigh Hearon, private investigator; Amber Baker and Stephanie Poor, Mark's employees; Tami Gilden, Mark's neighbor; Jennifer Thompson, Michiel's ex-wife; Sergeant Gene Davis. 02/12/11

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Dog Trainer, the Heiress and the Bodyguard" - Part two of a two part report on the October 2009 death of Mark Stover, a professional dog trainer. Michiel Oakes was charged with the murder of Mark Stover. Michiel claimed that Mark had invited him to his house on October 28, 2009 and that the shooting was in self-defense because Mark pulled a gun on him. After the shooting, Michiel removed Mark's body from his house and drove to the home of his ex-wife, Jennifer Thompson. Jennifer told police that Michiel implied that he had been hired by someone as a hitman to kill someone. Linda Opdycke briefly spoke to police the night Oakes was arrested, but the next day she refused to answer any questions on the advice of her attorney. Oakes was freed on bail, he and Linda were forbidden by court order to see each other or communicate. During the trial, Oakes testified in his own defense. Linda Opdycke testified that Mark Stover could be very dangerous. During her testimony, prosecutors told her if Oakes was found to be acting in self-defense, then she herself would not have any liability. Linda told them that she did not have any liability in this case. Prosecutors have never charged her with any crime. After four days of deliberation, the jury came to a unanimous verdict. Michiel Oakes was found guilty of premeditated murder. He was given the maximum sentence of 26 years, with no chance of parole. The case is still open and Linda Opdycke has not been charged with being an accomplice. Onscreen graphics: Vickie Simmons has posted a $50,000 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of accomplices in her brother's murder. Michiel Oakes is appealing his conviction. Stover's dog, Dingo, survived her gunshot wounds, but died months later of cancer. Interviewed: Dan Luvera, lead detective; Vickie Simmons, Mark Stover's sister; Leigh Hearon, private investigator; Linda Opdycke; Amanda and April Oakes, Michiel's daughters; Corrie Oakes, Michiel's mother; Michiel Oakes; Stephanie Poor, employee of Mark; Jennifer Thompson, Michiel's ex-wife; Julia Simmons, Mark's niece; Teresa Vaux-Michael, Mark's fiancée; John Henry Brown, defense attorney; Rich Weyrich, prosecutor; Meghan Mataya, employee of Mark; Jurors Heidi Toussint, Tom Jenkins; Judge Mike Reichardt. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Playing with Fire" - In the early morning hours of September 2, 2002, two young men were found executed in a burning Mercedes SUV in an upscale North Hollywood, California neighborhood. The victims were Michael Tardio, 35, a part-time model and doorman at The Garden of Eden - at the time Hollywood's hottest nightclub - and his friend, 31-year-old Christopher Monson. What initially looked like a drug or gang-related murder, turned out to be something entirely different, but the crime scene left little forensic evidence to go on. Retired veteran Los Angeles Police Department Detective Bill Cox, who spent four years on the case learned that Tardio's girlfriend was Sandy Bentley, who along with her twin sister, was a former live-in girlfriend of Hugh Hefner at the Playboy Mansion. She was also an ex-girlfriend of Mark Yagalla, a former Wall Street hedge fund manager who was convicted of running a multi-million dollar Ponzi scheme. During her relationship with Yagalla, he gave her more than $6 million worth of expensive gifts. When federal officials came after these gifts, Bentley secretly kept $1 million worth of jewels and furs she was legally required to forfeit. Police believe that Tardio and Monson were murdered when Tardio set up a deal to sell the jewelry to an unidentified buyer. When Bentley was questioned by police, she initially denied the fact that Tardio and Monson were selling the jewelry. When threatened with a possible jail sentence, she told them the truth. The strongest lead police had was a telephone number Tardio gave to Bentley for Michael Jacobs, a convicted felon who was seen with Tardio at the Garden of Eden. Police believe he was the middle man in the jewelry transaction and the only person who knows the identity of the intended buyer, known only as "Mister Big". Jacobs has refused to give any information to the police or 48 HOURS. Authorities are hoping that viewers of this broadcast may provide a new lead that could help them in solving the case. Interviewed: Retired LAPD Detective Bill Cox; Andrew Blankstein of the Los Angeles Times; Izabella St. James, former girlfriend of Hugh Hefner; Mark Yagalla; Brian Bieber, Yagalla's lawyer; Michelle Braun, Internet madam; Mike Degnan, FBI Special Agent; Attorney Eugene Licker; Linda Kim, jewelry collector and international weapons broker; Chris O'Connell, 48 HOURS investigative producer. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

02/26/11

48 HOURS MYSTERY: LIVE TO TELL: "Hunting Humans" - On July 29, 2007 Shea McDonough of Chelmsford, Massachusetts, returned home and left the back door open for her brother, not knowing he was spending the night at a friend's house. Hours later, her parents were startled by a sound coming from her room. They thought Shea was having a bad dream. When her father Kevin went to her room to check on her, he saw a large masked man standing over her with a knife at her throat. He jumped on top of him and they struggled and tumbled to the floor. His wife Jeannie came to the room and tried to grab the blade of the knife with her bare hand. Kevin told Shea to call 911. When the police arrived they were able to apprehend the intruder, Adam Leroy Lane, a trucker from North Carolina. A search of his truck revealed more weapons and a DVD about a serial killer, entitled "Hunting Humans". Police put out an APB to other police departments on the East Coast to see if there were similar incidents. Seventeen days before the attack on the McDonough family, a Pennsylvania woman, Darlene Ewalt, was murdered while talking on the phone on her front porch. Her husband Todd would become the prime suspect. One day before the attack on the McDonough family, Monica Massaro of Bloomsbury, New Jersey was murdered in her home, which was in the vicinity of a truck stop. Detective Sergeant Geoff Noble had seen the APB about Lane and contacted the police in Chelmsford. They told him they had found a receipt in Lane's truck from Bloomsbury, New Jersey. When Noble arrived in Chelmsford, he and his team inquired about the whereabouts of Lane's truck and were told that the rented truck had been returned to its owner, who threw Lane's possessions into a dumpster. They retrieved his personal property and sent it back to their forensic lab in New Jersey. Before they returned home, they questioned Lane, who realized they knew he had killed Monica Massaro so he eventually confessed to stabbing her. Several weeks after his knives were submitted to the forensic lab in New Jersey, the results showed that they contained DNA from Monica Massaro and Darlene Ewalt. This information exonerated Todd Ewalt. Lane reached a plea bargain in the McDonough case and was sentenced to 25-30 years in a Massachusetts state prison. For the murder of Monica Massaro, he was sentenced to serve 50 years in a New Jersey state prison. As part of another guilty plea deal, Lane was sentenced to life in prison for killing Darlene Ewalt. The McDonough family attended all of the sentencing hearings to support the other families. Jeannie McDonough wanted to know what would make someone like Lane start killing people and decided to write a book about it. Onscreen graphics: Adam Leroy Lane was convicted of assaulting another woman in Pennsylvania. He will spend the rest of his life in prison. Jeannie finished her book, "Caught in the Act". Narrated by: Shea, Jeannie and Kevin McDonough; Detective George Tyros of the Chelmsford Police Department; Todd Ewalt; Ed Marsico, Jr., District Attorney from Pennsylvania; Nicole Pogasic, Todd and Darlene Ewalt's daughter; Kerry Ahern, Assistant District Attorney from Massachusetts; Detective Sergeant Geoff Noble of the New Jersey State Police Department. 48 HOURS MYSTERY

03/05/11      48 HOURS MYSTERY – "Shelley's Last Breath" - an investigation into the 1999 scuba diving death of Shelley Tyre while on vacation on the Caribbean isle of Tortola. Police questioned her husband and dive partner David Swain about every detail of the dive; autopsy results were inconclusive. Shelley, a school principal who, in the early 1990s, had met and married David Swain, a divorced father of two, who ran a dive shop, was an adventurous woman who couldn't care less about money. Her parents insisted on a pre-nuptial agreement and David Swain agreed he would receive no money if they divorced. With her death, he collected more than $600,000 from her estate. What her parents could not understand was Swain's lack of emotion regarding Shelley's death. He explained that he didn't know had happened to Shelley during the dive. Although divers are supposed to swim in pairs, she was diving alone – he had gone elsewhere in the water. One year after her death, her parents hired an attorney and sent him and his team of experts to Tortola to investigate. After several months, they uncovered evidence which they believed proved David Swain was lying. 48 HOURS hired an underwater forensic expert to examine the evidence; he also concluded that it was much more than a diving accident. Her parents believed that Shelley's decision to change jobs and take a substantial pay cut may have been the motive for murder. In 2006, they sued David Swain in civil court for wrongful death and won. Armed with this, the Tyres persuaded the authorities in Tortola to re-open the case: island prosecutors charged Swain with the murder of his wife. Ten years after Shelley's death and after two years in a Tortola prison, the trial began. Certain information about David Swain became public during the trial – his father had been convicted of sexual abuse and sent to prison. His mother was bludgeoned to death by his brother, Richard. This information, along with testimony from his children and ex-wife was used to explain his behavior. In the end, David Swain was found guilty of murder and sentenced to life in prison. Onscreen graphics: David Swain is appealing on the grounds that defense experts were not allowed to testify. He is eligible for parole in 2032, when he will be 76 years old. Interviewed: David Swain; Jen Bloom and Jeremy Swain, David's children; Richard and Lisa Tyre, Shelley's parents; Don Badger, Shelley's co-worker; John Langella, David's friend and fellow scuba instructor; Sandy Wheeler, David's ex-wife; Jeff Morgan, San Bernardino, California Sheriff's Department; Keith Royle, dive boat captain; Bill Oliver, scuba gear designer; Neil Tassel and Tim Bradl, David's defense attorneys; Jim Erickson, former Minneapolis assistant district attorney; Hayden St. Clair Douglas, local counsel working with David's defense team. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

- 03/12/11      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Betting Her Life" - a follow-up to the original "Betting Her Life" (OAD: 05/15/10), which itself was a follow-up to "Right or Wrong" (OAD: 04/24/04; updated 01/01/08). This follow-up contains new and original footage from Susan Wright's new sentencing hearing, held in the fall of 2010. Susan Wright was a 27-year-old stay-at-home mother from Houston, Texas who stabbed her husband Jeff, 193 times. She claimed she was a victim of domestic abuse and that on January 13, 2003, her husband attacked her with a knife and she fought back in self-defense. Prosecutors charged that she was a cold-blooded killer who lured her husband to bed with the promise of sex, tied him up and then brutally murdered him. A jury found Susan Wright guilty of murder and sentenced her to 25 years in prison. Six years passed and new attorney Brian Wice took on her case, believing that Susan Wright deserved a new sentencing hearing because, he argued, prosecutor Kelly Siegler chose to inflame rather than inform the jury, and that Wright's original lawyers should have called more witnesses, including experts on battered women. Wice also had a new witness - Misty McMichael, a woman who was once engaged to Jeff Wright. Though she and Susan had never met, her story was very similar: both were topless dancers, and Misty also claimed that she was abused by Jeff Wright. Judge Wallace ordered a new sentencing hearing -- not to determine Susan's guilt, but to see if she might be given a sentence other than the 25 years she is now serving. In the fall of 2010, a more mature Susan Wright arrived for the hearing. Brian Wice handed the case over to a new lawyer, John Munier, who seeks to prove that Wright was a battered woman. The new prosecutors, Connie Spence and John Jordan, intend to prove that she killed Jeff Wright out of anger, not fear. A parade of witnesses are presented and for the first time, Wright's sister, Cindy Stewart, takes the stand. Her mother, Sue Wyche, also testifies; now a widow, Wyche admits that she lied at the original trial because she was afraid of the consequences from her husband if she admitted the truth. Misty McMichael also testified. The jury deliberated and the new sentence surprised everyone, because during deliberation, the jurors had asked about probation with community service, but instead, she is sentenced to twenty years, with credit for time served -- five years off of the original sentence. And then, finally, Susan Wright apologized to the Wright family. Onscreen graphics: Susan Wright's children, Bradley and Kaily, are now 12 and 9. They were adopted by Ron Wright, Jr. Susan Wright will be eligible for parole in 2014. She will be 38 years old. Interviewed: Susan Wright; Cindy Stewart, Susan's sister; Ron Wright, Jeff's father; Prosecutor Kelly Siegler; medical examiner Dwayne Wolf; Attorney Brian Wice; Judge Jim Wallace; Dr. Jerome Brown, an expert on battered women; Misty McMichael. New interviews for the 03/12/11 follow-up: prosecutors Connie Spence, John Jordan; Cindy Stewart. (C: Richard Schlesinger - P: Clare Friedland, Jenna Jackson, Chuck Stevenson)
- 03/19/11      48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: "River's Edge" - On January 8, 2000, college students Danielle Keener and Dan Zapp were on a date, walking along a river's edge outside York, Pennsylvania, when they were kidnapped at gunpoint by a man in a pick-up truck. The gunman put Dan in the back of the truck with his Rottweiler dog; he put Danielle in the passenger seat, where he then raped her. Afterwards, he then put them both out of the truck, and ordered them to walk down towards the river. From behind, he then shot them both in the face. Feigning death, they floated down the river, out of the gunman's view. They were soon picked up by a hunter, Pete Prowell, who was able to contact the police and get them to a hospital. Dan -- on a respirator and unable to speak -- wrote on a notepad what he remembered of the gunman and gave the police the clues they needed to find him. Police then tracked down and arrested William Babner for the crime. Six months after the shooting, Babner went on trial; he was convicted and sentenced to one-hundred and seventeen and a half to two-hundred and thirty five years in prison. Includes narration by Danielle Keener; Dan Zapp; Pete Prowell, the couple's rescuer; Brent Keener, Danielle's father; Elizabeth Martin, Danielle's college roommate; Dr. John Hankle, attending physician, York Hospital; Detective Doug Demangone, York police; Police Chief Darryl Albright; Police Captain Roland Camacho; Ed Paskey, York County Prosecutor. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

03/26/11

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Lost Night" - a follow-up to "Dream Killer" (OAD: 02/18/06). Kent Heitholt, the popular sports editor of The Daily Tribune in Columbus, Missouri was found bludgeoned and strangled near his car on Halloween night 2001. Two years later, 19-year-old Charles "Chuck" Erickson told a friend that he had a dream about his involvement in the crime. Although his memory of events was hazy, Erickson told police about events leading up to the murder and implicated his high school friend Ryan Ferguson. He said that he and Ferguson were out drinking the night of the murder and, when they ran out of money, decided to rob someone. According to Erickson, when he and Ferguson approached Heitholt, things got out of hand and Heitholt was killed in the struggle. Both Erickson and Ferguson were taken into custody and charged with murder. Four years after Heitholt's death, Ferguson, who claimed innocence, was tried for murder. The state's star witness was his former friend, Erickson, who claimed his involvement in the crime but maintained that Ferguson was the instigator. Found guilty of second-degree murder and first-degree robbery, Ryan Ferguson was sentenced to 40 years in prison. He will be eligible for parole in 2040. The follow-up details the unceasing efforts of Ferguson's father, Bill, to prove his son's innocence. In the course of his determined investigation, Bill uncovered evidence that contradicted earlier testimony from Erickson. In addition, Erickson recanted his claim that Ferguson was the instigator and active participant. Janitor Jerry Trump, who initially claimed that he saw Erickson and Ferguson at the crime scene, also now recanted his testimony. That new information, along with the assistance of Kathleen Zellner, a new attorney who agreed to take the case pro bono after seeing an earlier airing of the story on 48 HOURS, helped to secure a new hearing. Onscreen graphics: The Missouri Attorney General's office will respond to the request for a hearing by May 2nd. Former prosecutor Kevin Crane, now a judge, expects to be called as a witness. Ethics rules prohibit him from commenting. Interviewed: Bill Ferguson, Ryan's father; Ryan Ferguson; Rus Baer, sports reporter for Columbia Missouri's newspaper The Tribune; Mike Boyd, part-time writer who was a witness; Shawna Ornt, janitor; Leslie Ferguson, Ryan's mother; Prosecutor Kevin Crane; Christine Varner, manager of the agency who employed janitor Jerry Trump; Kathleen Zellner, Ryan's new attorney. Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming

This series is designed to encourage young viewers to accept and value diversity. Each week the team of young Stargate trainees enters a new world. As they encounter cultures, races and life forms foreign to any they have ever dreamed of, they also face life-threatening problems that require each team member to contribute to the well-being of all. As the young cadets learn to interact with and value "people" from different backgrounds, so too will the viewing audience. The trainees model many of the attitudes and behaviors that today's young people must learn in order to function well in a highly diverse society. The episodes emphasize getting along with others who are very different from oneself, working well with one's own team, and the individual character traits and abilities that go into the making of a good person. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules.

DATE/TIME	PROGRAM/DURATION	SUMMARY/PARTICIPANTS
1/1/11 3-4 PM	THE TRUTH ABOUT CRIME 60 Minutes	This local documentary recapped a four-month investigation by our I-team on crime statistics in Nashville. We found that, while Metro Police Chief Ronal Serpas was claiming crime reductions in Nashville for six straight years, this was not the truth. In fact, one expert told us that the Metro Police Department appeared to be fudging the stats. Even after Chief Serpas announced he was leaving Nashville for the top job in New Orleans, questions still stand here in Music City. Following our investigation, Metro ordered an audit to be done of the record keeping for crimes
1/15/11 11 AM-12:30 PM	GOVERNOR HASLAM INAUGURATION 90 Minutes	WTVF carried the Inauguration ceremony of Tennessee's 49th Governor, Bill Haslam, live. The new Governor took the oath of office and delivered his Inaugural Address on Legislative Plaza at the Tennessee State Capitol. The station streamed the ceremony live on our website as well.
1/23/11 3-4 PM	ANDREW YOUNG PRESENTS: LEAVING SELMA 60 Minutes	The dramatic 1965 march from Selma to Montgomery, known as "Bloody Sunday", was cut short by violence, when law enforcement officers openly attacked peaceful demonstrators as they attempted to cross the Edmund Pettus Bridge. What makes the incident so memorable is the fact that it took place in front of cameras, and the resulting images so shocked the public that America no longer could turn its head to what was happening in the South. Andrew Young was there and will tell some of the untold stories behind the story of that day.

AN EVENING OF STARS: UNCF
TELETHON
(8-10 PM)

"An Evening of Stars" first aired in 1979 and since that time has become one of the longest running and most successful charity events on TV. The telethon has helped raise over $200 million for the United Negro College Fund to supplement the cost of higher education for scholarship recipients and member institutions. UNCF supports more than 60,000 students at over 900 colleges and universities across the country. Its mission is to provide financial support to its 39 member institutions and increase minority degree attainment by reducing financial barriers to college. This year's show included a tribute to singer Chaka Khan.
